

Environmental law the basics...

Introduction

This course is designed for anyone wishing to understand how the 100 of so environmental laws may apply to their organisation.

It is particularly useful for those people to gain an understanding of how to comply with environmental law or who are formulating a register of regulations within their environmental system.

Course Location

On site or at our dedicated training facilities.

Course Duration

One day.

Key Topics

- The statutory legal framework
- CRC Energy Efficiency Scheme
- Regulation on Substances that deplete the Ozone Layer
- Water Resources Act
- Environmental Protection Act – Section 34 (Waste)
- The Energy Performance of Buildings Regulations
- DEC's
- EPC's
- CoSHH Regulations
- Control of Asbestos at Work
- Noise & Statutory Nuisance Act
- Wildlife & Countryside Act
- Interactive workshops to include practical examples

Qualification

On attending the course the delegate will be awarded a certificate of course completion.

All courses are delivered by qualified trainers with practical experience

FOR AVAILABLE DATES PLEASE CALL: 01902 771311

Mail: andrew.fletcher@esp.uk.net

Website: www.esp.uk.net